As the Nominations received were in line with our Constitution no Ballot was required and all the above mentioned were duly elected.

GENERAL BUSINESS

Des Broad outlined the events so far regarding the formation of a S/W Veterans Asssocation and in particular the Report from Jim Herring on future events in 1989.

International and National Events were also noted and it was agreed that these would be specified in our next News Letter.

AUDITOR

Moved D.Broad, seconded A.Bridge that Reg Connolly be re-appointed Auditor, this was carried unanimously.

President John thanked Neil Stewart for his contribution to the committee over the past years, also made the point that with the advent of the Qantas Internatioal at Lake Karrinyup in 1990 we would be needing many workers at that time.

President John Seward thanked the Committee both for their past efforts and also for accepting office once again, also extended to all his very best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

The Meeting cised at 10-45 AM.

Confirmed

President.
